

Youth Theatre Ireland Child Safeguarding Statement

1. Name of service being provided: Youth Theatre Ireland

2. Nature of service and principles to safeguard children from harm

Youth Theatre Ireland is the national development organisation for youth theatre. We support the sustained development of youth theatres across Ireland. Youth Theatre Ireland is committed to the personal, social and artistic development of young people using drama and theatre.

Youth Theatre Ireland works specifically with young people aged between 12 and 25. The largest cohort is currently within the 14-18 age range. Youth Theatre Ireland is committed to working with all young people regardless of their social, economic or geographical situation.

We undertake to provide a safe environment and positive experience, the welfare of the young person being of paramount importance. The Board of Youth Theatre Ireland recognises the duty of care it has; to staff, volunteers and all young people who access the organisation's services and that it is ultimately responsible for ensuring that Youth Theatre Ireland meets its legal and moral obligations to them.

Youth Theatre Ireland has adopted a whole organisation approach to welfare and child safeguarding. All those involved with the organisation including staff, volunteers and board members are made aware of the key role they play in safeguarding the welfare of young people.

We will ensure we are fully compliant with the Children First Act 2015. We will adhere to Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017) and to the policies and procedures we have developed to ensure this commitment is enshrined in all aspects of the organisation.

We engage and work directly with young people through the following activities:

- Drama workshops
- Rehearsals
- Theatre production and performances
- Auditions
- Residential Programmes
- Consultations including on-line and in-person focus groups, youth participation bodies etc.

- We communicate with young people from time-to time online and via email and have procedures in place to manage this.
- International exchanges and residentials

3. Risk Assessment

Section 2 of the Children First Act 2015 defines harm as follows: "harm means in relation to a child- (a) assault, ill-treatment or neglect of the child in a manner that seriously affects or is likely to affect the child's health, development or welfare, or (b) sexual abuse of the child".
